Art History Endowed Lectureship

Limestone pedestal from the Step Pyramid at Saqqara, with remains of a statue belonging to King Djoser.

“Who Were Artists in Ancient Egypt and What Audiences Did They Address?”

John Baines
Professor of Egyptology and Fellow of The Queen's College, University of Oxford

Thursday, March 4, 2010
7:00 PM
Michael C. Carlos Museum
Reception Hall
Third Floor

Lecture sponsored by the Art History Endowed Lectureship and the Michael C. Carlos Museum; For more information: 404.727.6282; or www.arthistory.emory.edu.