"Branding the Campus and Other Work"
Christian Philipp Müller

The Emory Art History Department is pleased to announce a lecture by the Swiss installation artist Christian Philipp Müller. Müller has exhibited and taught internationally since 1986. A contributor to such major exhibitions as Documenta X and the 1993 Venice Biennale, he has had solo shows at the Munich Kunsthalle and the Palais des Beaux-Arts, Brussels and at such galleries as American Fine Arts, New York and Christian Nagel Gallery, Cologne. Müller will speak on a sequence of works developed for and about college campuses, including "Branding the Campus," a project currently on exhibition in the show "What Business Are You In?" at the Atlanta Contemporary Art Center, curated by Helena Reckitt.

Lecture sponsored by the Art History Endowed Lectureship and the Michael C. Carlos Museum; For more information: 404.727.6282; or www.arthistory.emory.edu.
