

THE DOROTHY FLETCHER PAPER PRIZE

Call for Submissions

The Dorothy Fletcher Paper Prize is awarded annually to an outstanding research paper in the history of art.

Who can compete?

Undergraduates of any year, in any major.

What kind of paper is eligible?

Research papers of approximately 10 pages, with citations and a bibliography, written for an Art History course in the spring or fall semester of 2024.

How do I enter a paper into the competition?

Send your paper and the completed cover sheet as e-mail attachments to Dr. Merrill, who will submit it to the prize committee.

What is the deadline?

Friday, February 21, 2025, at midnight

What is awarded?

A small monetary prize—and, if the winner is a senior, recognition in the Commencement Program.
